

OLIVER CAPLAN
composer

BIOGRAPHY

With memorable melodies and colorful interplay, American composer Oliver Caplan's (b. 1982) music expresses a deeply felt romanticism. Mr. Caplan's 2012 debut album "Illuminations" is available on iTunes and Amazon.com. His music has been presented in over 120 public performances, including the Bronx Arts Ensemble, Bella Piano Trio and Juventas, among others. Accolades include Veridian Symphony Competition Wins (2016, 2014), VCCA Fellowships (2016, 2013, 2011), a Special Citation for the American Prize in Orchestral Composition (2015), and 5th House Young Composer Competition Grand Prize (2010). Mr. Caplan holds degrees from the Boston Conservatory and Dartmouth College. He currently resides in Massachusetts. www.olivercaplan.com.